Tim Buzbee international Tuba soloist plays on WILLSON Tubas !

Tim Buzbee won the Principal Tuba position with the Iceland Symphony Orchestra in 2005. Before that he spent four years with the Singapore Symphony before he won the same position with the Gävle Symphony where he performed for one season until winning his current position of Principal Tuba with the Iceland Symphony Orchestra. Besides winning jobs in six different countries, Tim Buzbee has been invited to the Berlin Philharmonic and the Gewandhaus Orchestra Leipzig auditions where he was a finalist. He has toured throughout the United States, Europe, Mexico, Japan, and most of Asia giving master-classes and performing recitals.

He has performed with the Chicago Symphony, Swedish Radio Symphony, Malmö Symphony, Helsingborg Symphony, Malmö Opera, Danish Radio Orchestra, Dallas Wind Symphony, Malaysia Philharmonic, and the Shreveport Symphony Orchestra. He has also been featured as a soloist with the Singapore Symphony, Marshall Symphony, Acapulco Philharmonic.

Buzbee has 2 solo cds out on the Albany label. His first solo cd "BUZZED", was met with critical acclaim. Fanfare magazine noted that "Buzbee is a fine musician who can make his tuba variously sing like a violin and bark like an angered dog, and touch all those bases in between. His sense of phrasing is astonishing as his sense of his instruments's tone coloring"

Tim Buzbee has studied tuba with Gene Pokorny of the Chicago Symphony, Matt Good of the Dallas Symphony, and Ed Jones of the Ft. Worth Symphony.

Tim Buzbee can be heard on over 20 CDs already on recording labels BIS, Chandos, Naxos, and Sony.
